How We Will Calculate Your Balance: The method used to calculate your balance is called "average daily balance (including new purchases)." See Cardholder Agreement for more details.

Variable Rate Information: Your APRs will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate. The Prime Rate is the highest FI prime loan rate as published by the Wall Street Journal in its Money Rates Section on the 14th day (or the next business day if the 14th is not a business day) of the calendar month preceding the first day of the billing period. If the Periodic Rate(s) and corresponding Annual Percentage Rate(s) increase, your interest charges will increase and your minimum payment may be greater.

Balance Transfers: Most balance transfers will post to your account within 21 business days. The time frame is dependent on how quickly the payee processes the transfered amount. Please continue to make payment on that account until you know the transferred amount has posted and the balance has been paid. If the total amount you request exceeds your available balance, we may send full or partial payments to your creditors in the order you provide them to us. Balance transfers do not earn rewards.

Loss of Introductory APR: We may end your introductory APR and apply the Penalty APR if you make a late payment.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in the Cardholder Agreement that will be provided to you before you can begin using your new card.
